Speak Up!

For the Los Altos Climate Action Plan

Every few years, California public agencies are required to update their Climate Action Plan (CAP) to show how each agency will bring their greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions in compliance with California's 2006 Global Warming Solutions Act.

Los Altos' last CAP was done in July of 2013. Read it here. City Council is asking Los Altos residents for input as we think about how climate change will affect us locally, and how we should respond to create a more sustainable city. Learn more about our CAP and how to follow and contribute to its development. Check out the rest of the article here.

Come Talk Climate

With State Senator Josh Becker

On Saturday, May 8 at 1:30PM, 350 Silicon Valley and partners will host a live online Town Hall with Senator Becker to discuss climate change and important California legislation being hammered out right now. Listen and learn, and add your two cents. More info and registration here.
